

Abstract Submission

Online Submission

There are two categories of presentations related to all fields of radiology:

- A) Scientific
- B) Educational

1. The submission should comprise of a Title, Author list, Author affiliations, and Abstract.
2. The title should not contain abbreviations and should be in sentence case (Bold).
3. The author list should identify the presenting author (bold, underlined).
4. The abstract for the scientific presentation should comprise of the following sections: Background, Aim, Materials & Methods, Results and Conclusion.
5. The abstract for the educational exhibit should comprise of the following sections: Background, Learning Objectives, Imaging Findings or Details of the Procedure and Conclusion.
6. The abstract should be sent as a word document with double spaced, 12 font format using Times New Roman or Arial.
7. The exact body of the abstract excluding the title, author list and author affiliations should not exceed 250 words.
8. The last date for submission is 17th March 2021.
9. The scientific committee will select some of the abstracts for oral presentation based on their content. The decision of the scientific committee will be final.
10. The final e-poster presentation will comprise of 15 power point slides only.

Organizing Committee

Registration of the Author, is compulsory, for the submission of abstract.

